

Modern slavery and human trafficking statement

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement

Our Business

Established over 100 years ago, we manufacture a range of quality printed board packaging for a wide range of markets including fresh and frozen foods, bakery and confectionery, per care, DIY and household and horticulture

Our Supply Chain

We only use suppliers which we have approved through a series of diligence, relating to company performance, HS&E compliance and auditing of their policies and procedures.

If any slavery activities within the supply chain were highlighted to us then we would act immediately in accordance with our legal and moral obligations.

Training and awareness raising

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To maintain awareness and ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business our Anti-slavery Policy is available in our Employee Handbook

Our Commitment

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

We are committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Nick Bramfitt', is written over a light grey rectangular background.

Nick Bramfitt

Managing Director 10/04/19